

Business and Finance for Kids

VC Library is happy to announce a series on business and finance for kids, to encourage kids to be entrepreneurs starting this September

The series is based on Warren Buffett's Webisodes. The webisodes are video clips focused on different business situations. Warren Buffett himself is the secret mentor to kids. With fun-filled adventures and simulated real life situations he teaches them business sense.

Videos will be followed by activities and games that will reinforce the basic ideas of starting and running a business.

Session 1

13 Sept. 2014, Saturday | Time: 3pm -5pm

We will start with a general discussion on what is a business. What is required for starting or owning a businesses?

Video 1 SMC tackles Business Location (Episode1)	Video 2 Having a plan is key (Episode3)
---	--

Session 2

20 Sept. 2014, Saturday | Time: 3pm -5pm

What business should you start if at all? Let's try to discover our goals and skill sets. The biggest myth is that one should not fail. In business you will fail in something or the other. And that is how you will learn!

Video 1 Pursue your dreams (Episode 10)	Video 2 Learn from your Mistakes (Episode 6)
---	--

Session 3

27 Sept. 2014, Saturday | Time: 3pm -5pm

Where do people get money from to start a business? And where can one get help?

Video 1 Save your Money (Episode 4)	Video 2 Get a Mentor (Episode 19)
--	--------------------------------------

The series will be anchored by Dr. Swati Shome (Masters and PhD from Albert Einstein College of Medicine)

After a successful stint in the US as a scientist and a researcher, she now conducts workshops and programs and write books for children. Her website is drswatishome.com

Admission: Rs. 300/- for the series in September
Limited seats. First come first serve basis

For queries and registrations: <http://www.vcenterlibrary.org/> | Ph: 020-25865877