

Myths and Facts about Snakes: Rendezvous with the Snake Experts

The talk will focus on identification of various species of snakes, their significance and handling, the science behind anti-snake venom and the first-aid and treatment aspect, the do's and dont's after a snake bite.

Monday, 1 Dec. 2014 | 11am-12.30pm | Training room, Venture Center

JOIN US ON 1 Dec. 2014

FREE Session

Register here: <http://www.vcenterlibrary.org/>

The session will be conducted by

Anil Khaire is Founder Director of Bahinabai Choudhary Prantisinghalaya at Chinchwad. He is also Chairman and CEO of Indian Herpetological Society. Currently he is engaged in conservation breeding of endangered snake species.

Kedar Bhide is post-graduate in applied biology. He has worked extensively in the field of snake research, rescue and awareness. He is also a professional wildlife photographer.

Shrirang Gokhale is General Medicine specialist and is a founder director of Niramaya multi-specialty hospital at Chinchwad. He has given several awareness talks on health related issues by All India Radio.

A Venture Center Library initiative